

Organization by Academic Skills

Some program's mission may place emphasis on what are considered the "academic" or school readiness skills.

Month	Literacy	Math	Science	Social Studies	Theme
August	Listening, Comp.	Math Media	Scientific Process*	Myself	I Learn to Listen
September	Exp. Lang., Restating	Seriating	Science Tools	Immediate Family	I Learn to Speak and Sort
October	Books, Ltrs by Rote	Patterns, Sets, Count by Rote	Biology	Extended Family	I Learn My Letters and Numbers
November	Noticing Letters	Shapes	Zoology	School Environment	Shapes and Animals
December	Left-Right Progression Sequence	Direction, Placement, Spatial	Botany	Neighborhood	Plants and Neighbors
January	Recognizing Letters	Comparisons, Recognizing Nos.	Geology	Community	Letters, Numbers, and Helpers
February	Rhyming Words	1 - 1 Correspond	Meteorology	Community	Poetry and Weather
March	Letters to Sounds	Numbers to Am'ts	Physics	Geography	Letters, Numbers, Gravity and Globes
April	Sight Words	Using Simple Math	Buildings & Machines	History	Words, Math, and Machines
May	Phonics	Time and Money	Astronomy	Ecology	Reading, Money, Our Earth

*The Scientific Process includes the development of Curiosity, Observation, Exploration, Discovery, Prediction, Use, and

This organization gives parents an explanation of how the "Kindergarten skills" are offered, but does not show the JUST AS IMPORTANT skills of Gross and Fine Motor